Section D: Declaration of Novelty and Use of AI

How is this submitted manuscript scientifically novel?

~~This is a current form of measuring physical parameters in an increasingly irradiated environment.~~
~~The assembling and combination of the sensors in the package requires a lot of quality assurance and checks that~~
~~also demands writing codes and algorithm to decouple and compensate physical parameters from each other.~~
~~These have been done with positive results.~~

Please see the Author Guidelines for the AI use policy.

How was AI used in the generation of this manuscript?

NIL

Section E: Plagiarism
