Section D: Declaration of Novelty and Use of AI

How is this submitted manuscript scientifically novel?

The submitted manuscript investigates the effects of modifying an Invelox wind delivery system by introducing a slot on the diffuser section. To the authors knowledge this attempt has not been researched in such a setup. narration. This makes the work novel and valuable especially towards application in residential areas where wind quality and speed are not desirable for power generation.

Please see the Author Guidelines for the AI use policy.

How was AI used in the generation of this manuscript?

AI was not used in the generation of this manuscript.
