Section D: Declaration of Novelty and Use of AI

How is this submitted manuscript scientifically novel?

This manuscript provides a pedagogical introduction to constraints in classical mechanics, followed by an introduction of a new means of incorporating non-holonomic constraints within classical mechanics. The method of incorporating non-holonomic constraints has not been published elsewhere, and the discussion around this new method is new.

Please see the Author Guidelines for the AI use policy.

How was AI used in the generation of this manuscript?

AI was not used in the generation of this manuscript.

Section E: Plagiarism
